Kent County Elder Abuse Coalition
Protect Kent Seniors

Member Agreement

Benefits of Kent County Elder Abuse Coalition (KCEAC) membership:

- Information Sharing (about resources and elder abuse cases)
- Education (learning from one another and guest speakers)
- Opportunities for group advocacy
- Shared Goals and Mission
- Marketing/networking/recognition (your organization's name and website link will be added to the Elder Abuse Website after 1 year of valid membership)

KCEAC Members agree to the following:

- Attend an orientation meeting (new member must meet with the coalition coordinator directly after the member's first meeting)
- Regular meeting attendance by member (determined by attendance at 50% or 4 meetings a year)

Thank you for your continued interest and passion following the coalition mission to "work together to identify, advocate, educate and seek justice for vulnerable adult abuse in Kent County"

I understand and agreed to the above membership requirements:
